

Magic II

Summer 2024

French Atlantic coast, Normandy and Brittany

Overview

Magic II will be sailing in early summer 2024 from The Netherlands to France.

June 1-8, Vlissingen to Cherbourg

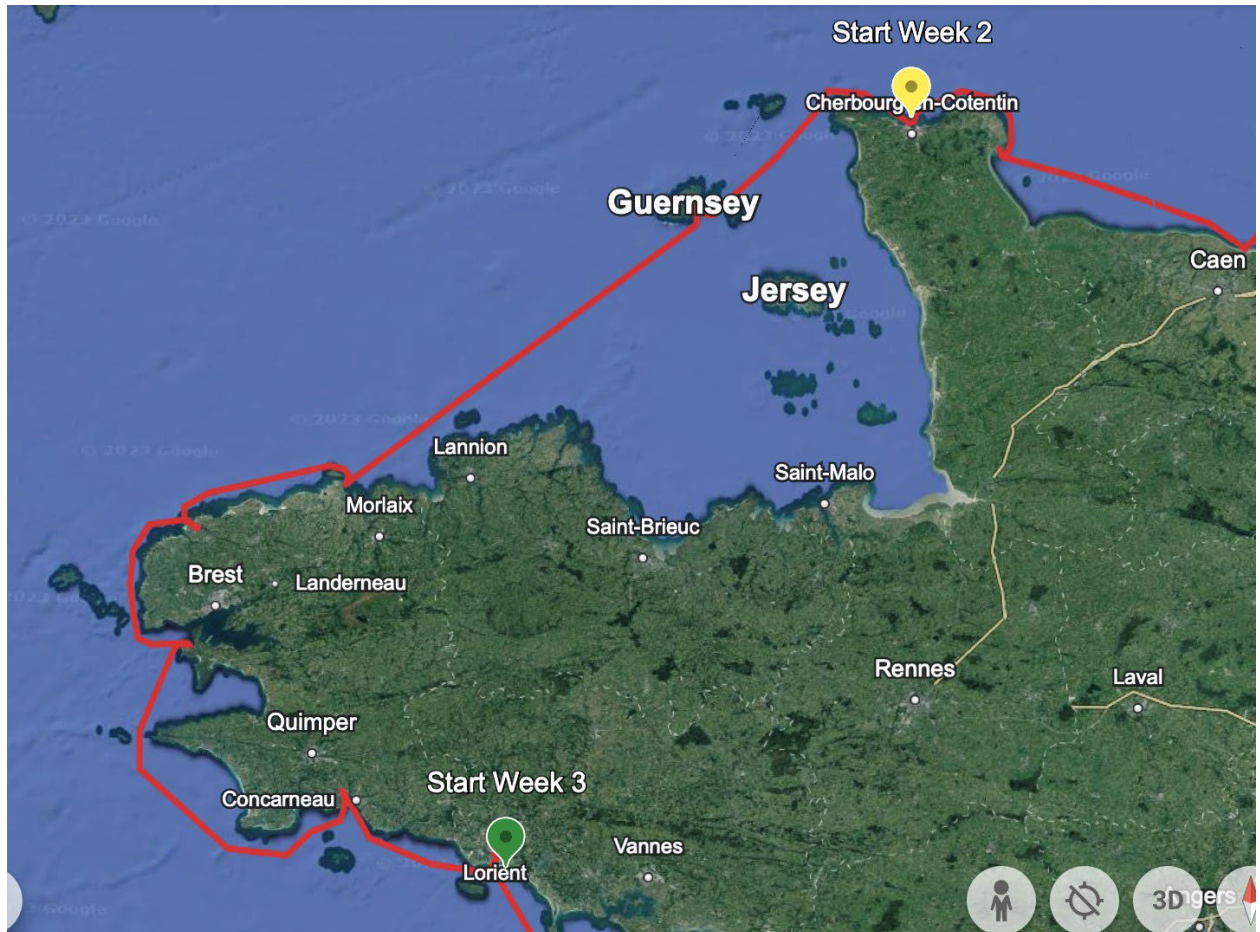

Leaving Vlissingen we follow the Belgian and French coasts staying well south of the large commercial vessel traffic lanes in the middle of the English Channel.

The planned stops are (mileage approximate):

Vlissingen - Calais	65 nm
Dieppe	75
Le Havre	55
Oisterham	17
Saint-Vaast-la-Hougue	42
Cherbourg	25	total 279

Possible continuation of the trip, week 2-3: Week 2,
June 9-15, Cherbourg to Lorient

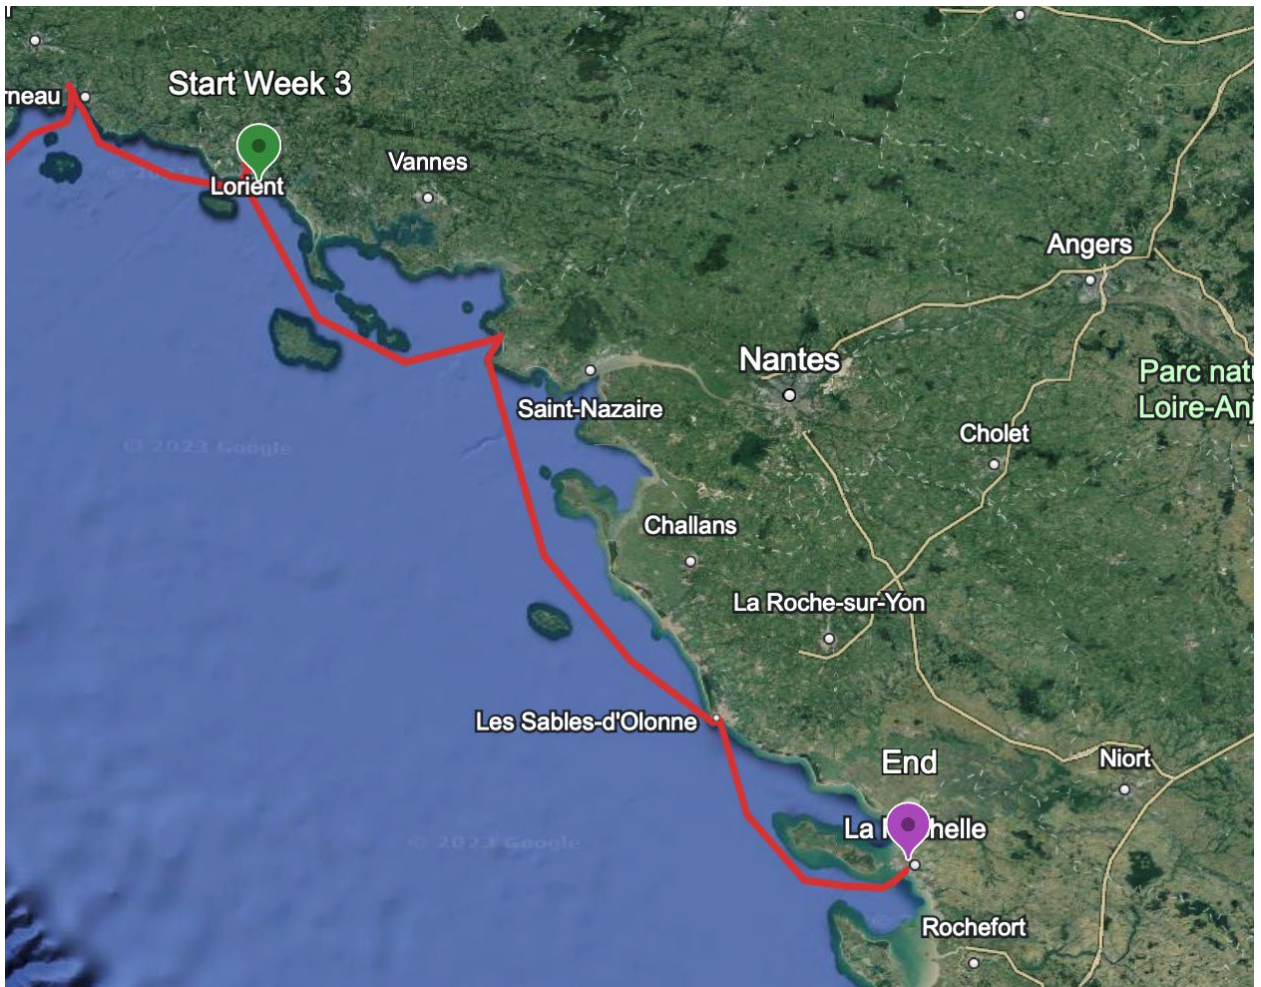

The second week includes a stop at the Channel Island (UK) of Guernsey and the contour of the tip of Brittany.

The planned stops are:

Cherbourg - Guernsey	46 nm
Roscoff	70
Aberwrac'h	35
Camaret	25
Port-La-Forêt	60
Lorient	27	total 263

Week 3, June 16-22, Lorient to La Rochelle

The third week is the shortest distance covered with stops at the well-known bases for famous ocean racing boats of Lorient and Les Sables-d'Olonne.

The planned stops are

Lorient - La Turballe	45 nm
Les Sables-d'Olonne	63
La Rochelle	71	total 179

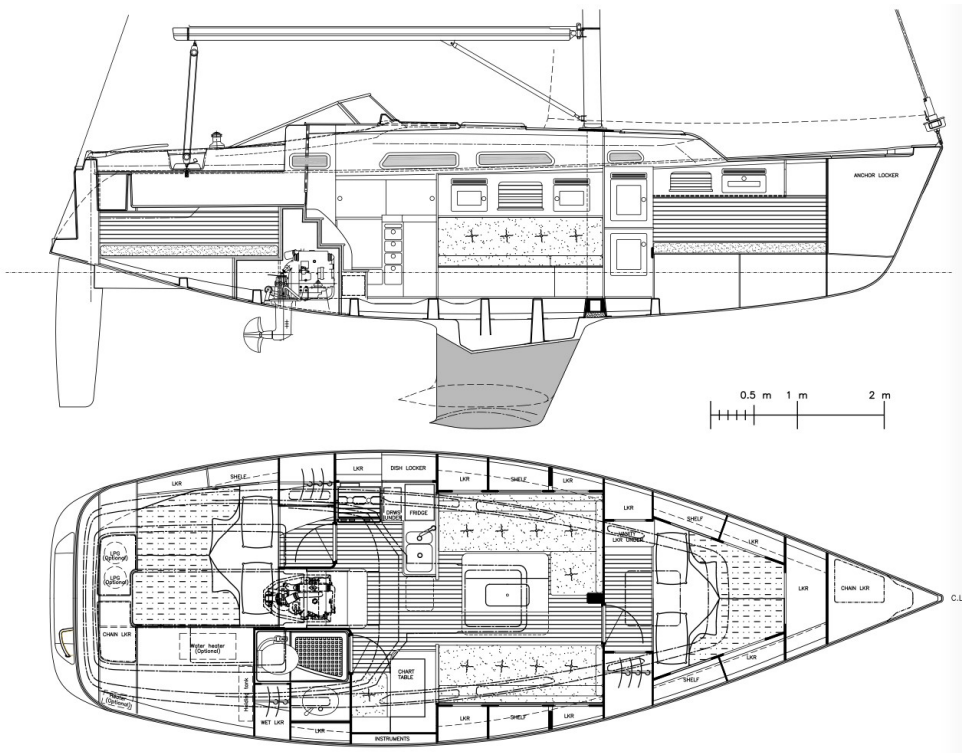

The Boat

Magic II is a Hallberg Rassy 342, a Germán Frers design built in Sweden in 2009, hull 207 out of 300 built. The boat is very well equipped; it has a good sail inventory and recently installed new B&G equipment including chart plotter, displays, wind instruments and a powerful autopilot. The engine is a Volvo-Penta with 700 hours.

The interior of the HR342 is particularly comfortable with two ample cabins, a fully enclosed head with shower, a well equipped galley with refrigerator and a full forwardfacing navigation table. The boat has central heat throughout. The boat can sleep six with two on the salon settees which open up to wide berths by raising the backrests.

Magic II sails under French flag with home port of Boulogne-sur-Mer.

More information can be found on the Hallberg Rassy shipyard website at:

<https://www.hallberg-rassy.com/yachts/previous-models/hallberg-rassy-342#c1092>

The Crew

Magic II is sailed by owner Pierre Jean, an experienced sailor with over 15,000 ocean miles. Pierre holds a US Merchant Marine captain license rated to 100 tons operating un-inspected vessels with up to 6 paying passengers.

Pierre has intimate knowledge of the systems onboard having performed many of the new equipment installations assisted by a top shipyard in The Netherlands.

Join the Voyage

This is a unique opportunity to visit the Atlantic coast of France so rich in history and naval tradition. The region is also the home of top professional sailors and the leading edge technology development companies that are launching the new incredible hydrofoil “flying” sailboats.

With convenient stops at the major cities of Cherbourg, Lorient and La Rochelle, all with fast rail connections to Paris, joining the voyage for a partial week stage is possible.

We invite friendly and experienced sailors to join us for this exciting cruise. To compensate for operating costs we ask for a contribution of 775 Euros per person per week.

For more information please contact Hank Snel at hank@sailfan.nl or phone. +31 6 53 255 749

